

Sydney Olympic Park is serviced by Olympic Park Station located in the heart of the park.

Central Station is 30 minutes by train and Parramatta Station is 20 minutes by train.

Direct and Express train services to Olympic Park during major events reduces travel times.

An Olympic Park Sprint operates daily between Olympic Park and Lidcombe Stations (Sprint Platform – T7 Olympic Park Line), at 10 to 20 minute intervals.

Concord West Station is an easy and pleasant 10-15 minute walk on paved pathways through Bicentennial Park to and from Sydney Olympic Park. At Concord West Station, exit onto Victoria Avenue and proceed to the pedestrian underpass which crosses through Homebush Bay Drive into Bicentennial Park.
